

I was discouraged to hear that the NO-CALL list is in consideration for change by ptotentially allowing 18 mo. call back soliciting. The reason that people such as myself go through the trouble of signing up is to avoid any and ALL calls from solicters and this should not be altered. By doing so; it deminishes the integritiy of the list in the first place. Thank you.